

Agenda
CBC/CSAC Joint Meeting
November 18 & 19, 2002
Pasadena, CA

Monday, November 18, 2002

Old Pasadena Courtyard Inn, 180 N. Fair Oaks Ave.

1:00 pm

Field Trip departs from the Courtyard Inn

A luggage area will be available at the hotel to stow your belongings until check-in.

Objective: Presentation/discussion on urban/wildland interface lessons for community planning and collaboration, in order to protect natural and recreational resources. Staff from the Angeles National Forest will be on each bus to discuss the history of use in the canyon over the last 50 years as the group travels from the hotel to the Forest.

1:30 pm Arrive at San Gabriel Canyon Entrance Station

East Fork and Bichota Tract

Valley of the Moon

3:45 pm Return to Entrance Station

4:30-5:00 Arrive Old Pasadena Courtyard Inn

This will be a time for folks to retrieve their luggage, check-in, and head up to their rooms. The dress for the evening will be "dress casual". A jacket may also be appropriate for the three block walk to the restaurant.

6:00 pm

No Host Social, Twin Palms Restaurant

The Twin Palms is located at 101 W. Green Street, two blocks south and one block west of the Courtyard Inn. Enjoy Old Pasadena as you walk to dinner.

6:30 pm

Dinner

7:15 pm

Keynote Address—Conservation: new approaches and new perspectives.

Speaker: Robert Gottlieb, Co-Director, Urban Environmental Policy Institute, Occidental College. His bio is attached.

8:00 pm

Adjourn and return to Courtyard Inn

“SHAPING ECONOMIC GROWTH WHILE PRESERVING ENVIRONMENTAL VALUES: PARTNERSHIPS IN PLANNING”

8:00 am      Welcome and Introductions

8:15 am      CBC Business & Updates

Executive Committee Report; California Legacy Project Update; Council Announcements

9:00 am      Welcome—Tom Stallard, CSAC First Vice-President and Yolo County Supervisor

9:10 am      Panel One: “Creating Environmental and Economic Infrastructure.”

California suffers from a $30–$90 billion deficit in economic infrastructure development. Participants will offer their thoughts on how communities can build for today to meet tomorrow’s needs while continuing to provide the rich and beautiful natural environment that distinguishes our landscape.

Panelists:

Tom Mullen, Riverside County Supervisor
Margaret M. Sohagi, Attorney, Fox and Sohagi, LLP
Janet Fairbanks, Senior Environmental Planner, SANDAG
Ron Rempel, Deputy Director, Habitat Conservation Division, Department of Fish and Game

10:20 am      Break

10:40 am      Panel Two: “The Creative Use of LAFCO for Cooperative, Representative, Large Scale Land Use, and Environmental Planning.”

While cities and counties each have their own planning responsibilities, it is through large-scale visionary cooperation that sensible comprehensive plans can be crafted. Panelists will discuss the benefits of using LAFCO as a positive institutional agent in supporting multi-stakeholder cooperation.

Panelists:

Bob Braitman, Executive Director, Santa Barbara LAFCO
Tal Finney, Interim Director, Governor’s Office of Planning and Research
Terry Roberts, State Clearinghouse Director, Governor’s Office of Planning and Research
Roberta MacGlashan, Mayor, City of Citrus Heights
Steve Bennett, Supervisor, County of Ventura

12:15 pm      Close Session

12:30 pm      Joint Luncheon with CSAC—Speaker: Jeff Mount, Professor of Geology, UC Davis (C103, Lower Level, The Pasadena Center)

2:30 pm      *CSAC Agriculture and Natural Resources Policy Committee (C101, Lower Level, The Pasadena Center). **All Council members and staff are invited to attend this CSAC Policy Committee Meeting*